

Indian Vision of Political Thinking

Editors :

Sanjeev Kumar Sharma

Ansuiya Nain

Studies on Indian tradition of political thinking have been scarce in the discipline of Political Science. The Indian Journal of Political Science has committed itself to the promotion of studies on various aspects of Indian idea of governance and dimensions of political functioning. The present volume provides a multi-dimensional view of the nature, scope and frameworks of political discourses in the Indian intellectual tradition. The articles have covered a wide range of areas with extensive and in-depth analysis of the phenomenon of political structures and functioning in India.

Professor Sanjeev Kumar Sharma is presently the Vice Chancellor of Mahatma Gandhi Central University, Motihari, Bihar, and the General Secretary and Treasurer of the Indian Political Science Association. Experienced in teaching, research, and administration for around four decades, Professor Sharma has contributed tremendously to the growth and development of the discipline of Political Science in India through his sustained efforts. He has widely published, globally travelled, extensively taught, and profusely spoken at national as well as global platforms.

Dr. Ansuiya Nain holds a Ph.D on Good Governance in Indian Concept of Rajadharma. Deeply engaged in research on various aspects of ancient Indian politics, she has published a good number of research papers on different dimensions of Rajadharma in Sanskrit literature. Dr.

Ansuiya has a penchant for understanding and analysis of the Indian Sanskrit texts with a perspective of political thinking.
